

Bill & Rita Johnson

Translation Ministry Newsletter

December 15, 2010

THE CHILDREN OF KENYA HAVE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON LEAFLETS

SPECIAL REPORT

For the first time in the history of ABA missions, the missionaries have five thousand children's Sunday school leaflets for some seventy or more churches in Kenya. These leaflets are the same as the ABA Kindergarten leaflets used by the churches in the USA. They were translated under the supervision of Missionary Ernie Hopper, printed on the ICP print shop in Romana by Liviu Clinciu and shipped to Kenya.

Missionaries (l to r) Eddie Williams, Ernie Hopper and James Taylor

our Sunday school attendance has already increased by twenty percent and the teachers really love this new material. It is easy to teach and the children understand it. The materials will be extremely beneficial to everyone. Other conservative Baptist groups have already shown an interest in acquiring the materials for their churches.

(above) ICP missionaries, Bill and Rita Johnson with Swahili translator Moses Wnjala. Moses translated the leaflets now being distributed to the churches of Kenya. (right) Liviu Clinciu, ICP translator and director of Romania teaches Moses about the programs and translation techniques. They are using a new computer purchased just this month for in Nairobi, Kenya. (far rt) Irene Matete, Sunday school teacher in First Landmark Baptist Church, Dagoreti Corner, Nairobi, Kenya.

“According to initial reports our Sunday school attendance has already increased by twenty percent and the teachers really love this new material. It is easy to teach and the children understand it. The materials will be extremely beneficial to everyone. Other conservative Baptist groups have already shown an interest in acquiring the materials for their churches.” said Ernie Hopper, twenty-two year veteran missionary of Kenya.

While in Kenya, Brother Bill taught about ninety people representing thirty churches from three countries in two Sunday school teacher training workshops. These people will train the teachers in their churches. This may be the beginning of a great outreach for International Christian Publishers.

(above) Missionary Ernie Hopper distributes children's literature to pastors at the conclusion of an all day teacher's training workshop conducted by ICP Missionary Bill Johnson for churches in Kenya. (below) Sunday school class of 49 students.

